Note: map shows a privately owned recreation ground which has recently been withdrawn from use by the landowner. However, the parish council hopes that use and access can be restored. If this is not the case the map and the open space figures will need to be changed.