

Skillington Conservation Area

Key Views Index

1. View towards the conservation area from Grantham Road with the Spire of St. James Church featuring strongly.
2. View from Grantham Road towards the open countryside with the tree lined ridges of Stoke Rochford Estate featuring strongly to the north east.
3. Enclosed view to the east and west along Colsterworth Road.
4. View towards surrounding open countryside from the track at the rear of Stonepit Lane.
5. View from the valley bottom at Cringle Brook towards open fields to the south.
6. Enclosed view to the east and west of Church Street.
7. Views across the paddock which is an important area of open space from Church Street.
8. View from the east of the village green across the paddock which is an important area of open space.
9. Views from the track at Park Lane towards the open countryside with the distant tree belts of The Stoke Rochford estate in view.
10. View from Sproxton Road towards open countryside to the south.
11. View from Back Lane towards open countryside across the ridge and furrow.
12. View looking out of the conservation area boundary at Buckminster Lane towards open countryside and Buckminster Estate.
13. View from outside the conservation area boundary at Sproxton Road towards St. James Church and surrounding historic buildings with the church spire and featuring strongly.
14. View from outside the conservation area boundary at Sproxton Road towards the village green.
15. View from Colsterworth Road looking into the village at the entrance to the conservation area.